Some Statistics based on the 2025 census figures for attending Sunday Mass:

- Forty four Sunday Masses are offered across the diocese which is an average of one Mass for every forty nine people.
- Forty one Churches are owned by parishes which means on average forty nine people pay the costs of each Church
- A further five Protestant Churches or properties are rented for Sunday Mass
- There are forty six places of worship
- Twelve parishes own only one Church building but four of these also rent another property for Sunday Mass. Therefore, only eight parishes own one Church building with no extra cost.
